

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
WESTERN DISTRICT OF WASHINGTON
AT SEATTLE

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Plaintiff,

v.

MILAN JURKOVIC,

Defendant.

Case No. CR32-1RSL

ORDER GRANTING UNOPPOSED MOTION TO CONTINUE TRIAL AND PRETRIAL MOTIONS DUE
DATE

This matter comes before the Court on defendant's "Unopposed Motion to Continue Trial Date and Pretrial Motions Deadline." (Dkt. # 13). Having considered the facts set forth in the motion, and defendant's knowing and voluntary waiver (Dkt. # 14), the Court finds as follows:

1. The Court adopts the facts set forth in the unopposed motion: in particular, defendant has been charged with one count of abusive sexual conduct in violation of 18 U.S.C. § 2244(b) and 49 U.S.C. § 46506(1) and defense counsel requires additional time to review discovery with defendant, as well as determine what further investigation is needed and whether pretrial motions need to be filed. The Court accordingly finds that a failure to grant a continuance would deny counsel, and any potential future counsel, the reasonable time necessary for effective preparation, taking into account the exercise of due diligence, within the meaning of 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7)(B)(iv).

2. The Court finds that a failure to grant a continuance would likely result in a miscarriage of justice, as set forth in 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7)(B)(i).

ORDER GRANTING UNOPPOSED
MOTION TO CONTINUE TRIAL - 1

1 3. The Court finds that the additional time requested between the current trial date of 2 April 10, 2023, and the proposed trial date of July 10, 2023, is a reasonable period of delay. The 3 Court finds that this additional time is necessary to provide defense counsel reasonable time to
4 prepare for trial, as defendant has requested more time to prepare for trial, to continue to
5 investigate the matter, to gather evidence material to the defense, and to consider possible
6 defenses. The additional time requested between the current trial date and the new trial date is 7 necessary to provide counsel for the defendant the reasonable time necessary to prepare for trial,
8 considering all of the facts set forth above.

9 4. The Court further finds that this continuance would serve the ends of justice, and 10 that these factors outweigh the best interests of the public and defendant in a speedier trial,
11 within the meaning of 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7)(A).

12 5. Defendant has signed a waiver indicating that he has been advised of his right to a
13 speedy trial and that, after consulting with counsel, he has knowingly and voluntarily waived
14 that right and consented to the continuation of his trial to a date up to and including August 10,
15 2023, Dkt. # 14, which will permit his trial to start on July 10, 2023.

16 IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that the trial date shall be continued from April 10, 2023
17 to July 10, 2023, and pretrial motions are to be filed no later than May 10, 2023;

18 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the period of time from the date of this Order, up to 19 and including the new trial date, shall be excludable time pursuant to the Speedy Trial Act, 18
20 U.S.C. § 3161, et seq. The period of delay attributable to this filing and granting of this motion
21 is excluded for speedy trial purposes pursuant to 18 U.S.C. §§ 3161(h)(1)(D), (h)(7)(A), and 22 (h)(7)(B).

23 DATED this 1st day of March, 2023.
